Workshop #1

14th Annual

Choral Symposium

Saturday, October 3, 2009

9am-1pm

Clinician: Elaine Quilichini

Demonstration Choir:

Vocal Vacation Alumni Singers

Ms. Quilichini is recognized for her exceptional musicianship and distinguished work with choral ensembles. As a Master of Music

(Kodály Emphasis), she is in demand as a clinician, lecturer, adjudicator and guest conductor across Canada, the United States, Brazil, Europe and Australia.

In 1995 Ms. Quilichini founded the Calgary Girls Choir, one of Canada's most dynamic and award-winning ensembles. In addition to her private music studio, she also directs the University of Calgary's Women's Choir. A notable indication of Ms. Quilichini's stature in the choral community is her series published by Alliance Music Publishing, Houston, Texas.

Packet of children's choral music included in workshop. Registration MUST be in by September 11th in order to be guaranteed a choral packet.

Workshop #2

Teaching Traditional Dance and Singing Games to Children

Saturday, October 24, 2009

9 am-1:30 pm

Clinicians: Peter and Mary Alice Amidon

While sharing some great traditional American and English dances and singing games for children, we will also discuss how to create a positive dance experience from the very first dance session, how to keep the dancing engaging, choosing a dynamic succession of dances and singing games, fostering dance independence, and generally making dance an integral part of the music program and of the greater school community.

Location: Joseph Estabrook School
117 Grove Street, Lexington, MA 02420

Workshop #3

Weaving Elementary Choir

Rehearsals into General

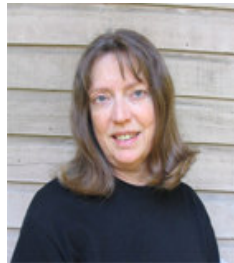

Classroom Lessons

Saturday, November 21, 2009

9am-1pm

Clinician: Connie Foss More

Ms. More has been a music teacher and clinician since 1969, with students from pre-school age through adulthood in public schools, universities, and at the Victoria Conservatory of Music. Her choirs consistently have earned high acclaim in concerts, festivals, and competitions.

Ms. More founded the Greater Victoria Youth Choir in 1988, overseeing its transformation to VIVA Choirs in 1994 as an independent non-profit organization under the umbrella of the Victoria Youth Choirs Society. With endless enthusiasm and energy, she coaches treble-voiced children as well as singers with changing and changed voices.

Ms. More is the president of the Kodály Society of Canada.
